

STEM Survey: Grades 2-3

Directions: Please circle your answer for each statement.

I like learning about the planets, stars, moons, and outer space.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about the human body, the brain, doctors or medicine.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about recycling, pollution or cleaning up the community.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about the weather and the climate, like the rain or snow and the seasons.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about how to make things, how to mix things or how things change.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about money, numbers and shapes.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

I like learning about using computers, cameras or phones.

Yes                      Maybe                      No

