

Involving Community Partners Checklist

Use this checklist to identify potential partners. Next, brainstorm and check ways partners might be involved in (or are currently involved in) civic learning projects.

Type of Partner	Partner Name (group, organization, or individual)	Options for Involvement
		Interview or conduct research	Invite to program	Tour or visit	Meet to present an issue	Collaborate on project activities	Provide service	Other
Government
Elected official
Parks and recreation department
Court house/judicial department
City council
Fire department
Police department
State or federal department/agency
Other
Community organization
Neighborhood civic association
Service group
Advocacy group
Local health organization
Local environmental organization
Local education organization
Nonprofit organization
Other

This resource is in the public domain. Authorization to reproduce it in whole or in part is granted. This resource was funded by the U.S. Department of Education in 2020 under contract number ED-ESE-14-D-0008. The views expressed here are not necessarily those of the Department. Learn more about professional development planning and 21st CCLC learning at <https://y4y.ed.gov>.

Involving Community Partners Checklist

Type of Partner	Partner Name (group, organization, or individual)	Options for Involvement
		Interview or conduct research	Invite to program	Tour or visit	Meet to present an issue	Collaborate on project activities	Provide service	Other
Business
Financial services
Food providers
Retail sales
Health care providers
Entertainment
Restaurants
Other local small business
Other company with local office
Other
School
Neighborhood school
College or university
Trade school
Other
Other Ideas								